

16th Annual European CME Forum

8–10 November 2023

Hotel NH Den Haag, The Hague, The Netherlands

Call for Abstracts Guidance

Poster presentation

Eligibility

The content must be pertaining to or of direct relevance to the practice of CME-CPD/IME. The content need not be Europe-specific but it would be helpful if lessons can be applied in the European/global sphere. The contribution must not promote a company, product or service, or be promotional in nature.

The presenter must be the primary author of the abstract and a registered delegate for the 16th Annual European CME Forum (#16ECF).

Oral presentation

Should it fit with the meeting agenda, there may be the additional opportunity to present the poster as an Oral Presentation. In this case, the presentation must be delivered by the primary author, address a relevant topic within the identified session and be no longer than 8 minutes when given.

Publication in the Journal of CME (JCME)

There will be a focus on publishing in CME. Posters that are also planned for publication will have a higher chance of acceptance. Please describe in your application how you plan to develop the poster for publishing in JCME.

Process

Applications must be submitted by Monday 18 September 2023. The entries will be reviewed by the Session Chairs under the Chairmanship of the Editor-in-Chief of JCME. Applicants will be notified of the outcome by email on Monday 25 September 2023.

Upon submission acceptance, poster authors will be required to send a PDF file of their poster and provide a brief video (approx. 2 mins) describing the poster. More details on the use of the video platform the meeting will be using will be provided to successful applicants.

Authors of accepted Posters will be eligible for the #16ECF Early Bird rate at any time until the meeting.

Subject to meeting the journal requirements, contributions, or adaptations, will be invited for publication in JCME.

Application

Please submit your abstract using the application form provided, which you can download from the 16ECF Call for Abstracts page.

Send the form, or any questions to cme@CMEforum.org.

We look forward to receiving your submission and seeing you in The Hague!
